

18 May 2010

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS FORUM PACIFIC V002 – FURTHER DELAY

We have just been advised by the vessel owners that the repairs to the cranes on this vessel are going to take longer than originally anticipated.

This departure of V002 will be delayed by a further 4 days.

The revised schedule for V002 is as follows –

PORT	ETA	ETD
AUCKLAND	28 MAY	29 MAY
NUKU'ALOFA	5 JUNE	5 JUNE
VAVA'U	6 JUNE	6 JUNE
RAROTONGA	10 JUNE	10 JUNE

At this stage receivals will recommence on Monday 24th May. Please check with McKay Shipping prior to sending any cargo to the wharf.

PDL sincerely apologises for the inconvenience that we know these delays will cause. Everything is being done to get these repairs done as quickly as possible. These repairs need to be undertaken to ensure that we have cranes that are both safe and reliable going forward. We hope that there will be no further delays but will keep you informed.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned or our Auckland Agents, McKay Shipping on 309 0229 or in Rarotonga, Transam Cook Islands on 22674.

Vicki Williams
COOK ISLANDS TRADE MANAGER

Pacific Direct Line – Linking you with the Pacific

Visit our website for more information

www.PDL123.com